Andrea Kabeláčová

Andrea Kabeláčová started writing FanFiction at the age of sixteen, step by step she moved to her own Piss off!, whose first chapter was created in October 2010. Since then she has been writing continuously, but as she says with an amused smile, she hasn't learned to describe herself in several sentences yet. She was born in Plzeň in February 1992, and still lives in the city with her mother, younger sister and two dogs. In her free time she likes reading, watching TV series and getting into her characters' heads.

Mia is a seventeen year old girl who is struggling through life on her own. She hardly ever becomes close friends with someone and her vocabulary can be pretty rough. When she leaves her unbearable mother she starts living in a deserted house together with a band of boys whose lives are similar to hers. When a new guy joins them she is not very happy about it. There are arguments on daily bases but as time goes the situation starts to change...

Format 135×203 mm, 392 pages, paperback

PISS OFF!

Lucie Fidlerová

Lucie Fidlerová was born in Brno in 1999, but since she was 2 years old she has lives in Kladno with her parents, a younger sister and a lot of pets. She started to write as soon as she learned the alphabet in school, and began to glue two-page paper books, thinking that one day they would become bestsellers! She started writing more actively when she learnt how to type capitals on the computer keyboard. When she was twelve, she became a passionate blogger, but despite her growing success in this field she realized that one day she wanted to publish her own book.

Hidden in the mountains and far from civilisation, there is a mysterious and beautiful place – the Dragon Rocks. A kingdom where people, elves, dwarves and dragons live together... Gabriel was born exactly at midnight on Friday, the 13th. It predestined him to become a warlock - someone able to treat people, use magic and summon dragons, someone who might become the King of Dragon Rocks. However, the beautiful Melissa, who has got used to being Queen, does not like this idea and she certainly does not intend to give up her position! How far is she willing to go? Strange deaths, intrigues and magic are beginning to threaten the once quiet and idyllic location. Gabriel and his friend Nely embark on a great adventure. Will they reveal just who is pulling the strings? It will not be easy, and not everyone is who they seem to be. Gabriel, Nely and perhaps the entire Dragon Rocks are in danger...

Kristina Hlaváčková

Kristina Hlaváčková was born in 1979 in Prague, but spent part of her childhood with her family in Nigeria. She started writing very early, but it was some time before she began writing seriously. In high school she won a scholarship to the U.S., where she found her way to one of her life's loves – ceramics. Now she is working as a translator with the ČVUT and returned to study at Charles University. In the past she translated series subtitles for MTV and texts for a prestigious Chinese architectural magazine.

DRAGON EYES

Learning how to dance, sew and be pretty? It's of no interest to Princess Elena. She wants to fight alongside her brothers and experience great adventures. Before she knows it, her dream starts to become reality. Her fateful meeting with a red dragon Ašrak changes the little princess's life. She must leave her home and go to the elves in a magical forest, where her principle task is to learn to control and hide the magic that runs in her veins. But this is not a normal school for young ladies . . . Can Elena face all the changes and the pitfalls of fate that await her? With the help of a young dragon Charlika and a quirky friend Michael she will not be alone. But will this be enough, not just for her, but also for the future of the whole world?
