Mozart is getting ready to compose a new piece: a serenade. He loves composing, but it's not always easy. Thank goodness for Starl! His pet and good friend always succeeds in giving him brilliant ideas for his music. As they play together around the house, Mozart watches Starl flying around and immediately a new melody pops into his head. Here it is! Serenade no. 13 is composed and it will always remind Mozart of his faithful friend Starl.

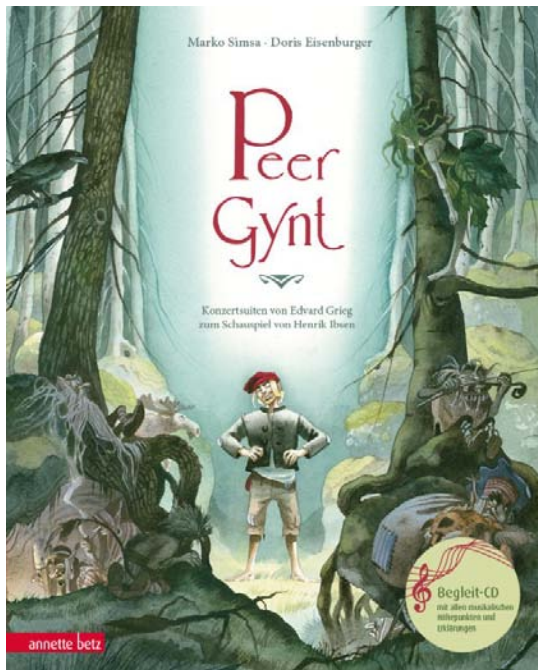

Darum sieht er alle Freunde und Bekannten ein. Starl soll herzlich beieinander stehen mit einem langen Kontrabaß. Die Menschen sind frohlich gelächelt. Constanze hält einen bunten Blumenstrauß in der Hand und Mozart verordnet Getreidekörnern und getrocknete Früchten auf dem Grab. Musik ist zu hören und jeder, der eine Kehle hat, soll lachen und singen, wie ihm der Schicksal gemächlich ist, das wünscht sich Mozart von all seinen Freunden.

Zum Schluss beschenken die Gäste der kleinen Nachtmusik. Mozart schmeckelt, denn bei jedem Ton erinnert er sich an den kleinen Starl mit dem wunderlichen Knopfdress, immer aufgeregt mit dem Flügeln runder, dann durch die Straße schreien und jeden Morgen fröhlich Abschieden zuflüchten.

Vielleicht sieht die Starl bei dieser Musik auch umherfliegen? Starl - der kleine Vogel mit dem dunklen Gefieder und dem bunten gelben Schwebel, schließt einfach fast die Augen und lächelt dieser wunderbaren Musik.
